Hi Rob

Looks good to me although more importantly @Littlejohn, Graeme what do you think ?

Just checked and the hole centres are 100mm

Thanks

Kind regards

Gavin

Thank you both for your time on the call earlier.

Hopefully the attached modified sketch covers what we agreed but let me know if anything needs changing.

Just need the distance between the holes on both top steels please.

Rob ,
Looks good to me , is it worth updating the main drawing ? Safe confusion in the future !
